

Ringgold County Board of Supervisors Minutes November 22, 2021

The Ringgold County Board of Supervisors met in regular session Monday, November 22, 2021. The meeting was called to order at 9:00 A.M with the following members present: Ron Landphair, Colby Holmes and Steve Knapp.

A motion was made by Knapp, seconded Holmes to approve the agenda.
AYES: Unanimous NAYS: None

Engineer Jared Johnson met with the Board to discuss secondary roads updates. Last week the guys worked on cleaning ditches. No more pipes will be placed this year due to inadequate weather conditions. The crew will continue with other projects until snow or frost prevents them from continuing. Johnson reported the crew continues to work on a project near Lee Trail.

Rock was hauled to post-center road. 190th street also received rock. Pending weather, the crew will continue to haul rock throughout the coming weeks. Knapp reported the road east of Excel Engineering looks great.

There was salt inventory leftover from last winter, Johnson said. Johnson ordered 200 tons of salt in October and has received one truck load. No sand has been hauled yet. There are still two bays left from last season, Johnson said.

The tanker car project is now complete, Johnson said. The crew will return today to complete final tasks to wrap up the project.

Progress at the Union 6 bridge continues.

Johnson reported one employee went through the crane certification program. Results will be made available in the coming weeks.

Auditor Amanda Waske presented the Board with Homestead/Military/Family Farm credit applications for review and consideration of approval.

Auditor Waske presented the Board with the FY22 amended appropriations as a result of the November 3, 2021 amendment. The Board moved forward with approval.

Sheriff Rob Haley met with the Board to review bids received for snow removal at the Sheriff's Office. The Board accepted the bid from Jeff French Snow Removal. The Board did not take action on this topic for Supportive Services as the Board for that department has already approved a bid received at their recent meeting.

County Attorney Clint Spurrier met with the Board to request approval to hire Allison Dredge for the secretary position in his office. The Board supported this recommendation. Dredge will start on December 6th allowing for a two-week overlap for training purposes.
