Last week at the Tingley 27 site the crew finished constructing the curtain walls, backfilled the culvert, shaped the roadway and site, placed revetment at the inlet and outlet, placed granular surfacing material, and worked to haul equipment off site. By the end of Friday, the roadway was open to traffic.

Auditor Waske presented the Board with two bids received for mowing the three cemeteries in Poe Township. They are as follows: Josh Rusk $195/time; Bret Ruggles $300/time. The Board moved forward with approval of the bid from Josh Rusk.

Auditor Waske requested the Board table approval of bids for building repairs as she is waiting to hear from the insurance company. The adjuster is reviewing all bids still and plans to respond by the end of the week.
