Weed Commissioner Update

Weed Commissioner Tim Sulzner met with the Board to provide an update:

- Noxious weeds notice will be published this week in local newspapers.
- Currently working toward certification.
- Consulted with the previous Weed Commissioner.
- Plans to meet with Auditor Amanda Waske to review the department budget.
- Will also coordinate with IT Director Zac Hague for computer setup.

Discussion with Public – 220th Avenue

Matt Routh met with County Engineer Jared Johnson and the Board to discuss funding for seal coat surfacing on 220th Avenue (west side of Loch Ayr).

- Routh reported that the lake group is prepared to contribute $8,000 toward the project.
- Supervisor Taylor expressed support for moving forward.
- Supervisor Holmes inquired about funding availability to extend the project to the north lake entrance.
- This project was previously a part of the construction plan proposed for the season but due to budget concerns, the group continued conversations.
- Engineer Johnson confirmed budget availability and stated he will proceed based on the Board's direction.

Engineer's Report – Jared Johnson

Engineer Jared Johnson provided updates on secondary roads:

- Sign truck out for repair/replacement of downed or deteriorated signs.
- Mowing operations underway in the southeastern portion of the county.
- Chipper chutes installed on dump trucks.
- Crew performed deck plank replacements on Bridge Poe 23.
- 220th Avenue Seal Coat:
 - Granular base material was hauled, laid out, and rolled in last week.
 - Rain forecast may delay oil and chip; department monitoring weather closely.
- Blacktop Services:

- Completed mill and fill HMA patches last week.
- Will return in a few weeks to apply surface leveler from Kellerton city limits north to the first curve.
- Vogel Traffic Services:
 - Delayed last week; scheduled for pavement marking this week.

Work Orders Completed:

- W.O. 1346: Replaced deteriorated 24" CMP culvert with 24" ADS on 310th Ave (170th–180th Streets).
