Public Health Director's Report – Becky Fletchall

All staff will transition to Taylor County Public Health on September 2nd, effectively merging the programs. There will be no changes in services provided to the current client base in Ringgold County, Fletchall confirmed. The main change will be Fletchall traveling to Taylor County 3 days a week. Office hours in Ringgold County will remain the same. They hope to have the ability to offer homecare services again to residents. Fletchall pointed out there will be no increase to the county budget. This will eventually allow for cost savings to the county budget, she added.
